EQUAL CREDIT OPPURTUNITY ACT

The Federal Equal Credit Opportunity Act prohibits creditors from discriminating against credit applicants based on race, color, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, age (provided that the applicant has the capacity to enter into a binding contract), or because all or part of the applicant's income derives from any public assistance program. Department of Agriculture regulations provide that no agency, officer, or employee of the United States Department of Agriculture shall exclude from participation in, deny the benefits of, or subject to discrimination any person based on race, color, religion, sex, age, disability, or national origin under any program or activity administered by such agency, officer, or employee. The Fair Housing Act prohibits discrimination in real estate-related transactions, or in the terms and conditions of such a transaction, because of race, color, religion, sex, disability, familial status, or national origin. If an applicant or borrower believes he or she has been discriminated against for any of these reasons, that person can write the Secretary of Agriculture, Washington, D.C. 20250. Applicants also cannot be denied a loan because the applicant has in good faith exercised his or her rights under the Consumer Credit Protection Act. If an applicant believes he or she was denied a loan for this reason, the applicant should contact the Federal Trade Commission, Washington, D.C. 20580.

ATTACHMENT TO LETTER NOTIFYING CUSTOMERS OF AN ADVERSE DECISION THAT IS APPEALABLE

The decision described in the attached letter did not [grant you the assistance you requested or will terminate or reduce the assistance you are currently receiving]. If you believe this decision or the facts used in this case are in error, you may pursue any or all of the following three options:

Option 1 – Informal Review

If you have questions concerning this decision or the facts used in making it and desire further explanation, you may write this office to request an informal review. There is no cost for an informal review. Your written request must be postmarked no later than 15 calendar days from the date of [the attached letter or this letter]. You must present any new information, possible alternatives, and your request to resolve the issues. You may also have a representative or legal counsel person, at the discretion of the Agency. Please include a daytime phone number in your request to arrange for the review. You may skip this step and select one of the following two options. If you do, you will automatically waive your right to an informal review.

Option 2 – Mediation as a Type of Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR)

You have the right to request mediation for the issues that are available for mediation. The purpose of mediation is to resolve disputes through the use of a neutral, third party mediator. A mediator will listen to all parties involved in the dispute and work with all parties to achieve a resolution that all parties are in agreement with. However, a mediator cannot change the Agency decision. You will have to pay 50 percent of the cost of mediation. USDA Rural Development will pay the other 50 percent of the cost. If you need information to assist you in deciding whether to seek mediation, contact South Plains Association of Governments (SPAG).

If you elect to seek mediation, your written request for this service must be sent to SPAG at the address below and must be postmarked within 10 calendar days from the date you receive [the attached letter or this letter].

USDA Rural Development will notify the customer that the time for an appeal has been suspended until the mediation is concluded.

Option 3 – Request an Appeal

You may request an appeal hearing by the NAD rather than an informal review or mediation. There is no cost for an appeal. Your request for an appeal must be made no later than 30 days from the date you receive [the attached letter or this letter]. You must write the Assistant Director of NAD, for your region at the following address:

You or your representative or counsel may contact this office anytime during regular office hours in the 10 calendar days following the receipt of your request for a hearing to examine or copy relevant non-confidential material in your file. Photocopies will be provided to you. Your representative or counsel should have your written authorization to represent you and review your file.

The NAD Hearing Officer will contact you regarding a time and place for the hearing. You may also request a teleconference hearing in lieu of the face-to-face hearing. At any time before the scheduled hearing, you may also request that the Hearing Officer make a decision without a hearing. If you do, the Hearing Officer's decision will be based on the USDA Rural Development file, any written statements or evidence you may provide and any additional information the Hearing Officer thinks necessary.
